Two Levels Plus
Reflection Sheets

Included: 60 different problems student could encounter in the community. Each task card has one with answer options and one without.

The last two pages of this product are supposed to go with the cards that do not provide a choice of solutions. Students can work in a group or independently

I recommend laminating for extended use.

Ideas for use:

Can be used for vocational centers.

To differentiate, students can complete task cards with options for a solution or their own solution for higher level students.
